

ESL Podcast 8 - Moonlighting

Tags: Business

Robert: You look exhausted. You must have been out late last night having fun.

Muriel: I wish. I've actually started moonlighting. I've decided to go back to school and need the extra money to make ends meet.

Robert: Good for you. That's great. Where are you moonlighting?

Muriel: I'm working at the university library. At that time of night, it's pretty dead. When there are no students around, I can use the time to study. It works out pretty well, except for the hours.

Robert: Oh, yeah? What are they?

Muriel: My work schedule is pretty good, actually. I work three days a week: Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. But my hours are 7 to midnight. By the time I get home, I'm dead tired.

Robert: No wonder you look beat. Here, have some more coffee.

Muriel: Thanks. I just hope I don't fall asleep in the morning meeting.

Robert: It's okay. No one will notice.

Muriel: Thanks a lot!

Robert: Don't mention it.

Script by Dr. Lucy Tse